

Leonardo Valeriano

FRONTEND DEVELOPER

PROFILE

Hello, I am a person who loves the world of programming, I am open to work, I excel in developing frontend applications with React. I love to read, and much of my education in software development comes from books. Some of my favorite books are Learning React by Alex Banks, React 17 by Carlos Santana Roldán and Eloquent Javascript. I was also educated in Platzi, which I have had great achievements such as completing the School of Javascript, or the learning path Frontend with React.
